Request For Review Of Child Support Order

I am requesting that TCSP review my child support order. I believe my order needs to be modified because:

- The gross income of one or both parents involved in my case has changed substantially (at least a 15% increase/decrease) since the current child support order was established.
- There has been a change in the custody of the child, in that the child:
 - Has changed residences
 - Is no longer a dependent
 - Other (explain below):

There has been a change in the Tulalip Child Support Guidelines and Schedule:

- I have become disabled or incarcerated since the order was entered.
- At least two years have elapsed since the last modification.
- Other substantial change in circumstance that justifies a modification, explain reasons (give detail below):

Statement of Understanding

Any modification of my support order will be effective from the date the petition to modify is filed with the Court, not from the day I requested a review.

I understand that TCSP and its attorney do not, and will not, represent me or the other party in my child support order. Both parties to the support order have the right to have an attorney represent them in court. TCSP may ask a court to modify my child support order.

I understand that TCSP may use information I provide to establish, modify, or enforce child support. TCSP shares this information with other governmental agencies only for those purposes. TCSP may deny my request to adjust or modify my support order if my order does not meet legal standards or review requirements.

I have the right to pursue a modification of my support order on my own.

A modification request may result in an order that requires a higher or a lower support amount than my current order requires.

WARNING: TCSP and its attorney may share any documents you submit with the other party to your support order, and may file the documents in the Court's files. The other party to your support order has a right to see your financial information. Please remove your personal identification information (address, birth date, social security number) from these documents before you submit them. (Note: If all parties, including both parents, agree to a specific modification, or if you have made a full and complete disclosure of your finances to TCSP, and TCSP certifies to the Court that it has reviewed your financial information, then no financial information needs to be filed with the Court.)
