

Is your credit holding you back from being a homeowner?

Did you know that

- Incorrect information on your report makes an impact on your credit score.
- It takes 7 years for most negative history to come off your credit report.
- Your credit score will usually determine how much you will be paying in interest

Call and make an appointment with our Credit Specialist to help improve your credit for a home

All the information shared with your credit counselor is confidential.

If you have any questions please call

Ilia Brown 360.651.3439